

Course Outcome for M.A. ENGLISH

British Drama

- Analyse the aspects of drama
- Evaluate various historical ages from Chaucer to Modern.
- Write plays of their own

New Literature

- Explain the dimensions of New Literature.
- Examine various cultures in the world
- Enumerate the writers of different nations

Research Methodology

- How to conduct a research study
- Prepare a project of their own
- How to write parenthetical documentations

Literature for social transformations

- Identify literature of relevance for Social Transformations
- Analyse the society through the prescribed texts
- How to acquire vocabulary knowledge from prose

Comparative literature

- Compare literature in relation to national, world and general literature
- Evaluate other schools of comparative literature
- List out the different categories of comparative literature

Critical Theory-II

- Critically evaluate the essays written by critics of the 20th century
- Explain the principles of critical theories
- Analyse literary works by applying various theories

English Language Teaching- Theory and Practice

- Give an account on the history of English Language
- Write the aspects of ELT and the different types of Language testing and evaluation.
- Discuss various methods of teaching

Communicative Enhancement

- Write a Project report by applying the techniques that they had already studied
- How to prepare themselves for Pre-Doctoral Research
- Attend Viva-Voce without fear

Advanced English Grammar and Usage

- Describe grammatical structures
- Write proper sentences
- Speak correct English

British Poetry

- Trace the origin and development of English Poetry
- Critically appreciate the human values and moral values embedded in lyrics
- Analyse and appreciate poems

Indian writing in English

- Explore Indian English literature
- Discuss extensively about Indian historical past
- Explain the writing styles of Indian English writers

Shakespeare

- Discuss the greatness of Shakespeare
- Critically analyse the Shakespearean plays and his characters
- Evaluate British drama and its scope in literature

Aspects of English Language and Linguistics

- Describe the various aspects of English language
- Identify the relationship between language and Linguistics
- Discuss the various aspects of Linguistics

Mass Communication

- Relate the important binary relationship between media and society
- Analyse different forms of media text
- Describe various types of Communication

British Prose

- Give the development and growth of British Prose
- Examine the various aspects of Prose through great writers

- Analyse the human values embedded in the essays written by great writers

American literature

- Trace the origin and growth of American Literature
- Demonstrate a broad knowledge of major and minor authors, texts , contexts and issues in American Literature
- Identify and describe distinct literary characteristics of American Literature

British Fiction

- Compare and contrast authors treatments of theme, character and subject matter
- Trace the historical development of British fiction by examining selected representational works
- Relate the characters in the novels with the characters in real life

Literary Criticism

- Identify major theoretical /critical movements as well as primary concepts with which they are associated
- Define and apply specific theoretical concepts , theories and terms to literary and cultural texts
- Examine historical contexts for the development of contemporary theory and criticism

English for Competitive Examination

- Identify the most common Grammar errors
- Avoid frequently occurring grammar errors in their spoken and written English
- Apply the grammar rules learnt in the day to day life